Ministry of Foreign Affairs London Underground Terrorist Explosion

The Sudanese Foreign Ministry strongly condemns the terrorist explosion that targeted the London Underground on Friday 15th September 2017 and resulted in injuring many passengers. This is a crime that runs against all values and human principles.

The Ministry denounces and repudiates all terrorist acts that spill blood and terrorise innocent and peaceful citizens in a manner which is unacceptable in all religions and international laws.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs expresses full solidarity with the British Government and supports all measures it takes to confront criminal activities. The Ministry reiterates its call to the international community to intensify efforts and coordination in the face of all terrorist actions.
